The revised document addresses the comment of not having 3 different indices for each advanced query. This new document has added two more indices for each query along with the new explain analyze pictures for each new index that show the performance stats. It has a more detailed analysis after each query that compares all 3 indices and determines which one has the best performance.